The Annual Staff

of South Oak Cliff High School

proudly presents . . .

Foreword

Many friends have been made at South Oak Cliff this year. And these friends will go on forever remembering and handing down the ideas and traditions of each other. The smiles and laughter of each person are those that make up our noisy halls—smiles that will cast a profound shadow upon each ending day and laughter that will be heard throughout the oncoming years.

Then comes the guilt—guilt from those who have been punished because of a little pride they could not put down just so there would be a little something to let them remember their days at SOC. And at the same time there are those who will never be forgotten through a carved initial on a wooden desk, or a little trick played on some teacher.

And as for the tears, there comes those accomplished memories for those who have made SOC a part of them, and them, a part of SOC. There are the tears from those who have built their appearance, personality, and knowledge around SOC and now must leave to learn it from a different society. But most of all is the love, honor, wisdom, and traditions that we, the 1968 Student Body of South Oak Cliff High School, have left to remain among the halls, teachers, and to whom it may concern in the future.

A Show of Appreciation Goes to

Miss Jean Brown

For the past five years, Miss Brown has contributed a great deal to SOC to make our school truly "The Home of the Champions." Formerly as a teacher, and now as a counselor, she has repeatedly guided many students to a better understanding of life and its problems. Whether in her office, in the hall, or at outside activities, a warm, friendly, greeting awaits the South Oak Cliff student body. For this friendship, devotion, and loyalty, we, the Annual staff, proudly dedicate the 1968 Den to Miss Jean Brown.

PRINCIPAL JOLLY F. KELSAY

Through his proven ability as a diligent administrative educator, Principal Jolly F. Kelsay has again helped provide to the faculty and students of SOC a year that must be noted for its academic achievement and progress in the field of human relations. In his fourth year as principal of SOC, Mr. Kelsay has again greatly contributed to the motto that plays such a large part in uniting the faculty and students—"SOC—Home of the Champions."

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL DAN ROSE

Assistant Principal Dan Rose, for his special ability to communicate with and understand the students he deals with, must be given recognition as a well-liked and respected addition to the administration at SOC, which he joined last autumn.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL WILLIAM H. COTTON

In his first year at SOC, Assistant Principal William H. Cotton has earned the appreciation and esteem of the students and faculty of SOC for his fine work and dedication to the betterment of SOC.

Bruins Belt Unwise Owls 12-6

In a hard fought, tooth and toenail battle with the Owls the Bruin defense held off attack after attack. Headed by linebacker Bobby Koncak and little nose guard Charles Slaughter the Bears stopped all Owl hopes.

Paul Tacker's 73 yard run back of a kick off capped the Bruins' win.

Bears Claw Wildcats 20-9

Picked zone champions, Woodrow Wilson, learned about the SOC Bears. The Bears' excellent key plays and fine teamwork kept the Wildcats tied in knots throughout the game. Nose guard, Charles Slaughter plugged up every gap that the Wildcats tried to open stopping them cold.

Bears De-Spot Leopards 20-0

SOC's Bears handed the Leopards another defeat for this season. Hodge Mitchell, Paul Tacker and Danny Colbert headed the Bears attack in de-spotting the Leopards.

Bears Trample Washington 48-6

Led on offense by Hodge Mitchell and Danny Colbert, the Bears dominated play throughout the night at Cobb Field. While Mitchell would run one side of Washington defense down, Colbert would run the other side down.

Defensively the Bears were led by Paul Tacker, Brad Lockett, and Mike Randerson.

Bears Put Bulldogs in the Doghouse 55-6

The Bulldogs fell to the paws of the Bears again. A long bomb by quarterback Bruce Hamlin to end Ronnie Henson set up the Bears 1st touchdown. The Bruins, with excellent team work, stunned the Bulldogs.

Bruins Rope Mustangs 31-0

Roosevelt's first engaged battle against the Bears proved to be fatal to the Mustangs. Hard nosed Carl Wafer decapitated Roosevelt runners throughout the game.

All Mustang players were keyed on all-city half-back Hodge Mitchell during the game. Mitchell was still the game's leading ground gainer.

Bears Unsaddle Cowboys 27-0

Carter Cowboys, newcomers to the class AAAA competition, were initiated to the Golden Bears. The Cowboys were knocked out of their saddles by defensive end John Garrett and big tackle Mike Johnson.

Led by Bruce Hamlin on offense and Danny Colbert, the Bruins offensive attack paralyzed the Cowboys' attack.
